Dvar Torah: Moshe Raskind

Inspired by Shem Mishmuel

Hashem approaches Moshe to lead the people out of bondage from Egypt. It has been 210 years since Yaakov Avinu entered Egypt, and our promise was that after 400 years we would be redeemed and freed from slavery. Moshe doubted that he was the one that could lead the people out of Egypt and he was also concerned that he would not be believed since our tradition held that we must remain an additional 190 years.

Hashem, decided to have us leave early because our level of corruption and absorption into the Egyptian society had us fall 49 levels in spiritual purity. A little longer and we would not be able to be saved. We were so absorbed that we were like a fetus inside the mother, whatever happens to the mother immediately affected the fetus or Klal Yisroel. The plagues ended this relationship and for the first time, what happened negatively to the Egyptians. Had a positive outcome on the Children of Yisroel.

Convincing the people to follow Moshe was the task and Hashem gave Moshe 3 signs: He would through his staff and it would turn into a serpent, and he would grab the serpent by the tale and it returned to a stick. Second, he put his hand into his tunic and when he pulled it out it was full of leprosy. When he returned his hand into his tunic and withdrew it, it was cured. Last, and very different, Moshe filled a container with water from the Nile, and when dumped onto ground, it was blood.

The last of these signs was the most telling. Unlike the other two, the blood did not revert back to its original state. This symbolized that Egypt will not recover from what Hashem was about to do to them.

Let us recognize the signs and wonders that Hashem has revealed to us today, and move toward making Him the center of our lives and hope that like Egypt, Hashem will shorten our suffering and bring the coming of Mesias soon.

Security Update

Because of the growing and serious general threat of violence to the Jewish community, we need members to volunteer to help keep the Young Israel community safe, especially by controlling entry to the doors on Shabbat. We strive to be a warm and friendly shul, but in these times, sadly, it is also important to be vigilant and secure. Please sign up for security training for door guards to be held at Young Israel on Sunday, February 2, 2020 at 0930 for about 1.5 hours. The training will focus on identifying suspicious behavior, describing subjects and counter-surveillance. RSVP to Marc Hess at marcjhess@hotmail.com.

Rabbi's Endorsement:

Shul security continues to be an important matter in the Jewish community at large as well as for our own congregation. Security concerns must always be met with a two-pronged attack encompassing both the spiritual response of increased tefilah and Torah, as well as a physical response of increased security features to protect our Kehillah. If you're able and willing to volunteer to guard the entrance to the shul for a Shabbos morning time slot, please fill out the questionnaire at the link below. Thanking you in advance for your dedication to the tzorchei tzibbur.
