Sponsorships

Kiddush sponsored by the Guterman family in honor of their last Shabbos in Cherry Hill. "Being in this community has been a pleasure. We value the friendships we have made and the growth as a family physically and spiritually. Hakares Hatov for living and being a part of this community. As a family we are very lucky to be apart of Young Israel for only 2 short years. When we first moved here with a new baby we felt an out pour of love and extended hands. You don't find many communities like Cherry Hill!!!"

Silly Humor

Three rabbis are standing around schmoosing when one of them says, "We've got a terrible problem with racoons in the attic of the shul. Traps, cheese. Nothing works."
The second rabbi says, "Same thing with us. We tried it all. Still we have racoons."
The third rabbi says, "We had the very same problem-but not anymore!" Now the other two rabbis are interested. "How did you do it?"
"It was easy. I went up to the attic gathered all the racoons together and performed a mass bar mitzvah. And we haven't seen any of them since!"
