Silly Humor

There's a group of Jews in a shul publicly admitting their nullity in the eyes of G-d. The Rabbi stands up and says: "O G-d, I know I am worthless. I am nothing!" After he's finished, a rich man stands up and says, beating himself on the chest: "O G-d, I am also worthless, obsessed with material wealth. I am nothing!" After this, a poor ordinary Jew also stands up and also proclaims: "O G-d, I am nothing." The rich man turns to the Rabbi and whispers in his ear with scorn: "What insolence! Who is that guy who dares to claim that he is nothing too!"
