Rabbi Ian Shaffer was educated in both London and Israel. He received a BA and MA in Jewish Studies from Yeshiva College in London. A member of Gateshead Synagogue and of Haver Maamad in Manchester, UK, he was a pulp-pusher in London for 3 years. Rabbi Shaffer was deputy head of Jewish Studies at Brunel College in London for eight years. After moving to the United States, he started teaching Hebrew Bible at Yeshiva College. He has also been teaching adult education in Fair Lawn, NJ for over 15 years and has many lectures and written articles on an ongoing basis. He also supervises the kosher food program at Brunel College in NJ. He has 3 children and 9 wonderful grandchildren (50 years hence, he moved to Cherry Hill in December 2015).

In case of inclement weather please call/text 201 394 7447 to find out whether the shiur will be taking place.
