Dvar Torah: Moshe Raskind

Last week we discussed how Klal Yisroel had a direct affect on the nations of the world through our midot, religious observance and faith. The holidays of Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret take this concept further.

Sukkot is a holiday where Hashem celebrates His world. Its when we put ourselves in His hands, live in a shaky shack open to the elements. In the days of old, Jews and gentiles brought sacrifices to the Holy Temple. A 7-day chag for not only the Jews, but the entire world! More sacrifices than any other time.

After Sukkot, the party ends for the gentiles; Our Father in Heaven asks us to stay one more day. There are no symbols to this holiday, no special foods dedicated to this holiday.

Even the sukkah is no longer necessary. Hashem, asks us to stay a little longer; to celebrate with Him our unique relationship.

"I have detained you [to remain] with Me." This is analogous to a king who invited his sons to feast with him for a certain number of days, and when the time came for them to leave, he said: "My sons! Please, stay with me just one more day; it is difficult for me to part with you!" Rashi Our level of simcha rises to new heights even surpassing the joy of sukkot itself.

Kiddish is sponsored by Duke McCarthy: All glory, praise, honor, and blessings to the Great G-d of Israel and the whole world!! May He bless all Jews and Israelis ever! The State of Israel, the Ground of Israel, and peace in Jerusalem, ever. Especially for this Shabbat and the beautiful holiday of Sukkot!! And may He bless Young Israel and families, ever!! Please, Amen!
